An aerial night view of the Dubai skyline. On the left, a tall, uniquely shaped skyscraper with a twisted facade is illuminated with blue and white lights. It has 'BAYZ 102' and 'DANUBE' written on its upper and lower sections. To the right, the Burj Khalifa stands prominently, its spire reaching into the dark sky. The city below is a dense grid of lights, with highways and smaller buildings visible. The sky is a mix of deep blue and orange from the setting or rising sun.
